

Monroe Township Recreation Board Minutes
March 11, 2024

Members Present: Eric Long, Kathy Mulvey, Donna Ricketts, and Janice Stramara

Guest in attendance: None

Call to Order: Chairperson Long called the meeting to order at 7:14pm.

Approval of February Minutes: Kathy moved to dispense with the reading of the February minutes and approve them as submitted; Eric seconded the motion and the motion carried.

Earth Day Planning: Donna distributed flyers for “Growing and Using Culinary Herbs” program and asked Board members to post them in the community. She asked Kathy to post them to the WRA and Monroe Acres FB pages. She sent the flyer to Holly for inclusion in the Spring Township newsletter. Eric will post it on the Monroe Community website.

Donna shared a draft program evaluation.

Janice will check with Ashcombe’s about donating herbs for the plant containers.

Self Defense Class: The Self Defense class scheduled for Tuesday, April 30 6:30-8:30pm class in the Community Room is confirmed. Janice will make a minor change to the flyer and send it to Holly for inclusion in the spring newsletter.

Exercise Class Update: Eric reported the classes are going well. Janice said the YMCA instructor requested equipment for the Circuit class: balls, weights, mats, and steps.

Eric is going to ask the instructor to send him an email request with a list of equipment and its costs.

Old Business:

Community Day – See attached Fourth Community Day planning meeting summary.

Donna will draft a summary Community Day paragraph for the spring newsletter.

New Business:

Carlisle Fish & Game Association, Inc. – no report

Mechanicsburg Sportsmen’s Association – no report

Yellow Breeches Anglers & Conservation Association – A “Treasures of the Township” walking tour is a possibility for their property too.

Kathy reported that Sue Sunday is available to conduct a Walking Tour of Churchtown on Saturday, September 14, 3-4pm. She will talk about ghosts during the tour. Also, Kathy said use of the church parking lot for the program is confirmed.

Kathy will send Joe at Talking Breads information on “Treasures of the Township” for a future program.

Adjournment: Donna moved to adjourn the meeting at 7:50pm; Kathy seconded, and the motion carried.

Respectfully submitted, Donna Ricketts 3/13/24
